

Plan your Trip to Amsterdam!

Europe's most non-conformist capital welcomes you with its arms full of sunflowers and tulips, tantalising all your senses. The erstwhile fishing village at the mouth of the Amstel River, which wrote some of the most important pages in the history of the Dutch Golden Age (17th century), has a lot more to offer than the licentious hedonism of the Red Light District.

Behind the curtain of smoke rising from the notorious coffee shops, the Dutch capital daily discovers the joy of life in the edgy brushstrokes of Vincent Van Gogh, in lush green parks, booming nightspots and cutting-edge boutiques.
