Introducing new Trade Portal features

As we continue to enhance our Trade Portal to provide the best user experience for you and your clients, we are pleased to offer our newest feature to better serve your needs on our one-stop platform.

With the latest version, you can now enhance your customers' journey by raising a self-service to access the Qsuite quad seats for flights on eligible aircraft.

Our one-stop platform includes the following:

Registration

Create an account for each individual agent with access to complete services on a single platform

Self Services

Including Qsuite Quad access, name correction or change and more

Ticket status

Check current status of specific PNR or ticket number

E-learning

Learn about Qatar Airways products through our online courses
